Classical Voyage on the historic mail boat MS Serenissima

MS Serenissima Travel Itinerary*

Embark on an unforgettable journey across Northern Europe and the Arctic, exploring some of the most breathtaking waterways and coastal regions of the world. This itinerary offers a unique blend of scenic cruising and visits to charming towns, with an ever-changing panorama of landscapes and natural beauty. Travel through three climate zones into the land of polar bears and the midnight sun.

April 29th : Warnemünde and the Store Belt

Your voyage starts in Warnemünde, a picturesque German coastal town. The MS Serenissima awaits you in the idyllic harbor at midday and sets sail for the Great Belt in the afternoon. This strait offers a calm and picturesque passage with views of coastal villages, islands and the impressive Great Belt Bridge, which is illuminated in a variety of ways at night.

April 30th : Skagen

Skagen, located at Denmark's northernmost point, is renowned for its unique natural phenomenon where the Skagerrak and Kattegat seas converge at Grenen. The town's distinctive light has historically attracted artists.

May 01st : Flekkefjord

The entrance to Flekkefjord offers marvelous views of one of Norway's southernmost fjords. Surrounded by cliffs and colorful wooden houses, this idyllic place harmoniously combines nature and tradition.

May 02nd : Kopervik

Kopervik, located on Karmøy Island, is a charming coastal town with a picturesque harbor and pedestrian-friendly streets lined with small shops and cafés. Close to the town are Skudeneshavn, a charming fishing village with its traditional sailing port and Avaldsnes, believed to be Norway's oldest royal seat, where you can find the Nordvegen History Center.

May 03rd : Scenic sailing in Fjord Norway

Experience the breathtaking beauty of the Norwegian coastline, small islands, majestic mountains and colorful villages. This scenic sailing offers panoramic views of Norway's stunning fjord landscapes, providing ample opportunities for photography and relaxation on deck.

May 04th : Åndalsnes

Åndalsnes is the gateway to some of Norway's most beautiful mountain peaks, a paradise for mountaineers and climbers. The town is particularly well known for the Romsdalseggen ridge, which offers hikes with breathtaking panoramic views.

May 05th : Trondheim

The approach to Trondheim unveils a city where history and natural beauty blend seamlessly. Framed by rolling hills and fjords, Trondheim boasts a spectacular waterfront and the stunning Nidaros Cathedral.

As we reach Trondheim, this is a unique opportunity to either conclude your voyage or embark here for the second leg of the adventure.

May 06th : Brønnøysund

Brønnøysund is a charming coastal town surrounded by beautiful archipelagos. Nearby, the iconic Torghatten mountain is famous for its distinctive hole through the rock.

MS Serenissima Travel Itinerary*

May 07th : Trollfjord and Stokmarknes

Cruise through the Trollfjord, a narrow and dramatic waterway flanked by sheer cliffs. The fjord's raw beauty is awe-inspiring, with the ship gliding through waters so still they mirror the towering peaks above. Later, in Stokmarknes, the birthplace of Hurtigruten, you can explore the Hurtigruten Museum and enjoy beautiful waterfront views.

May 08th : Tromsø

Tromsø, often called the "Gateway to the Arctic," is a lively city known for its stunning landscapes and vibrant cultural life. Set against a backdrop of mountains and fjords, it offers unique attractions like the Arctic Cathedral and Polaria Museum.

May 09th : Hammerfest, Honningsvåg and the North Cape

Hammerfest offers a fascinating blend of Arctic history and modern life. It is home to the Meridian Column, a UNESCO World Heritage site marking the first accurate measurement of a meridian. In the evening Honningsvåg serves as the gateway to the legendary North Cape, where you can experience the northernmost point of Europe.

May 10th : At Sea, Passing Bear Island

As the MS Serenissima sails northward, it passes Bear Island, a remote and rugged island teeming with seabirds and Arctic wildlife. As night falls, we are finally treated to the awe-inspiring sight of the Midnight sun, casting its golden glow across the horizon and illuminating the Arctic sea in an ethereal light.

May 11th : Scenic Sailing Bellsund

The Bellsund located in the Svalbard archipelago offers a pristine Arctic landscape, surrounded by glaciers and rugged mountains. A paradise for polar bears, arctic foxes and reindeers. Guillemots nest in large colonies in the rugged cliffs.

May 12th : Longyearbyen

Longyearbyen is the largest settlement on Svalbard and the seat of the regional administration. The colorful houses against the barren Arctic backdrop tell of a lively community that becomes tangible as soon as you are ashore.

May 13th : Kongsfjord and Ny-Ålesund

The Kongsfjord is considered the most beautiful fjord on Svalbard and is characterized by its impressive glacier landscape. Arctic birds, seals, walruses and polar bears are at home here. Ny-Ålesund, situated on the fjord, is one of the northernmost settlements in the world. Originally a mining town, it now serves as an international research center.

May 14th : Scenic Sailing Isfjord and Longyearbyen

Scenic Sailing in the Isfjord offers breathtaking views of towering glaciers, rugged mountains, and expansive tundra landscapes. Enjoy the rich arctic wildlife and pass historical mining settlements before MS Serenissima will arrive in Longyearbyen this day and will remain overnight in port.

May 15th : Optional extra night Longyearbyen

The MS Serenissima remains in Longyearbyen. You have the option of using the cabin at no additional cost until May 15th 08.00 hrs. Disembark the ship by 10.00 am at the latest and take wonderful memories home with you.
